SUBJECT: U.S. Intelligence Board

1. Effective 15 September 1958 the Intelligence Advisory Committee and the U.S. Communications Intelligence Board were combined into the U.S. Intelligence Board (USIB) under the chairmanship of the Chief, KUBARK.

2. USIB advises and assists the latter as he may require in the discharge of his statutory responsibilities and pursuant to his responsibility to coordinate the U.S. foreign intelligence activities including both special and other forms of intelligence which together constitute the foreign intelligence effort. In addition, the USIB shall establish policies and intelligence objectives, review the national foreign-intelligence effort, make recommendations on foreign-intelligence matters, develop security standards and practices relating to the protection of intelligence sources and formulate policies with respect to arrangements with foreign governments on intelligence matters.

3. Further details concerning the establishment of the USIB will be contained in a revised [] which will be given field distribution.
